

Model Rules for departmental examinations - For non-gazetted (Ministerial) Staff in the offices of Heads of Departments and offices subordinate to them.

GOVERNMENT OF MAHARASHTRA,
General Administration Department,
Circular No. G-1067-T,
Sachivalaya Bombay-32 BR.

Dated the 3th June 1972

- Read:-
- i) Government Circular, General Administration Department, No. TRG-1067-T dated the 26th September 1967,
  - ii) Government Resolution, General Administration Department No. EXM-2068-0&M, dated the 29th February 1968,
  - iii) Government Resolution, General Administration Department No. EXM-2068-0&M, dated the 27th January 1969.

CIRCULAR:- In Government Circular, General Administration Department of even number dated the 26th September 1967 Government has prescribed Model Rules for departmental examinations for non-gazetted (Ministerial) staff in the offices of Heads of Departments and offices subordinate to them. In rules 4 and 7 of the Rules for Post Recruitment Examination for clerks (Annexure I accompanying the said circular), a penalty clause of "discharge from duty on failure" has been provided. But for the Post Recruitment Training of Lower Division clerks in the Secretariat Departments no such penalty of discharge from duty on failure has been provided. Rules 4 and 7 for Post Recruitment Examination for clerks provided in the Model Rules will have to be deleted in view of Government Resolution, General Administration Department No. EXM-2068-0&M, dated the 29th February 1968 read with Government Resolution of even number dated the 27th January 1969, so as to achieve uniformity in respect of all types of Examinations whether in Secretariat Departments or in Heads of Departments.

Government is, therefore, pleased to amend rules 4 and 7 of the Model Rules for Post Recruitment Examination for clerks and directs that :

Last line viz. 'A candidate who fails in all the 3 chances, shall be discharged from service', in rule 4 of the said Model Rules shall be deleted and the following sub para shall be added viz. :

"If the candidates' name is included in the Post Recruitment Training Class, he is expected to appear at the Post Recruitment Training Examination and pass it as early as possible. If he passes the Examination within three chances (to be taken at any three out of four successive examinations held immediately after the completion of the training course to which he was admitted) he would retain his original seniority. In case he does not pass the examination within the three chances mentioned above, he will lose seniority to all those who pass the Post Recruitment
